The Combatting Clans of Clay County Are Massing for a Terrific Battle.

FOURTH VICTIM DEAD AND BURIED.

Philpotts Coming to the Support of Their Kinsmen From Distant Parts of the Country.

They Are Reported to Number 100 in Arms Ready for an Attack From the North, South, East and West.

LONDON, Ky., July 20.—The situation in Clay county has assumed huge proportions, the present feud being the most and fiercest of the kind to be known in the mountain battle. Monday's slaughter is believed to be the beginning of a series of such battles.

News of the latest spread rapidly over Clay county, and runners were sent out to inform the friends of both sides of the killing. The Philpotts came to the support of their kinsmen in numbers of 10 and 15 from distant parts of the country. Two of the horses fell dead under their riders from their overheated condition, as eager were the Philpotts to get to the scene of battle. They are reported to number 100 in arms ready for an attack from the Morris, Griffins and Chadwells. Who are nearby.

Aaron Morris, Harvey Griffin and Hugh Griffin, the three men whose bodies were pierced by hundreds of shots in Monday's blood-bath, were Tuesday placed in one wagon and hauled to the graveyard near Man chester. It was some hours after the battle occurred until enough of the Griffin's friends could be rallied to remove the dead and wounded from the battle ground.

Ed. Fisher, who fell mortally wounded with many holes through his body died Tuesday, and will be buried at the Philpott graveyard Wednesday. Robert Philpott was reported dying Tuesday night, but the last report says he is not dead. The report that Green Griffin is in jail at Harbourside is incorrect. He is at the Chad well home, where the Griffin side is assembled. He has both legs shot off and will die.

George Philpott was shot through the breast and thigh. Alex. Fisher was shot through the shoulder. Both will probably recover.

A correspondent saw the bond which Robert Philpott was giving at the time of attack. It was smeared with blood and the top was cut out with buckshot. Philpott had just been arrested for disobeying an order of summons and was making a bond for his appearance in the Clay circuit court at the October term. The bond was in the sum of $100, signed by R. G. Philpott, and would have been signed by his uncle, George Philpott.

The Griffins made the assault on horseback. They were among the Philpotts before the latter knew they were attacked. Aaron Morris announced the onslaught by firing into Robert Philpott with a Winchester. Ed Fisher and Aaron fought a hand to hand battle with Colt revolvers, and both fell. Morris died on the spot.

BAD FIRE IN BROOKLYN.

An Elevator and Two Stores Destroyed, Entailing a Loss of More Than a Quarter of a Million Dollars.

NEW YORK, July 20.—A fire whose origin is unknown destroyed more than a quarter of a million dollars' worth of property on the Brooklyn wharf Wednesday night. It started in the large eight-story grain elevator of the Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co., facing and abutting the Excelsior stores on Atlantic basin.

The elevator was soon totally destroyed. The fire extended to buildings Nos. 275 and 276, which are six stories high and cover an area of 150 by 125 feet. Those two buildings were completely gutted and their contents, 500,000 bushels of grain and valuable machinery, destroyed.

The stores and elevator were the property of the Brooklyn Wharf and Warehouse Co., and the grain belonged to various consignees. The loss is estimated at from $250,000 to $500,000. Well insured.

Applicants for Commissions Who Do This Will Be Next in Line of Promotion.

EXTRA INDEUCEMENTS TO RECRUITS.

Commissions Offered to Men, Otherwise Qualified, Who Will Furnish Not Less Than 40 Men.

There Have Been Several Cases of This Kind During the Past Week—Disappointed Applicants for Commissions Now Have a Chance.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The war department is offering extra inducements to expedite the recruitment of the ten volunteer regiments. Nearly all the commissions having been filled, many of the disappointed applicants have been advised to enter the ranks, as in that way it may be possible for them to secure commissions. Gen. Corbin says that the policy of the administration will be to fill all vacancies which may occur among commissioned officers from the ranks. A number of applicants for commissions have enlisted as privates in the different regiments and have been appointed non-commissioned officers wherever possible and consequently in line of promotion to commissioned rank in the event of a vacancy.

Another method of securing recruits is to offer commissions to men otherwise qualified who will undertake to furnish in each case not less than 40 men who can pass muster as soldiers and will enlist for service in the Philippines. There have been several cases of this kind during the past week. A former officer of the Texas volunteer infantry recently told Gen. Corbin that he would guarantee to recruit 500 good men from Texas provided he was assured of a commission. Gen. Corbin promised him a second lieutenant if he would recruit even 40 men for the volunteer army.

THE TROLLEY MEN JOIN THE BROOKLYN TROLLEY MEN IN THEIR B.G. STRIKE.

RIOTING WAS OF A SERIOUS NATURE.

They Harried the Streets With Pavement Stones, Tore Up the Street from Chopped the Stone With Wire and Spikes and Stood the Cars.

NEW YORK, July 20.—New York trolley men joined the Brooklyn trolley men Wednesday in their big strike. The center operations in New York city were on Second avenue. The excitement in Brooklyn centered in the vicinity of Thirty-sixth street and Fifth avenue, where early Wednesday morning dynamite was used in an attempt to blow down the elevated structure.

The rioting that took place in New York Wednesday afternoon and Wednesday night was of a serious nature, infinitely fiercer than any that has taken place yet in the borough across the river. Scores of people were severely injured in the Second Avenue district. Wednesday night that thoroughfare was crowded with a jeering, howling mob almost its entire length. The great tenements gave forth their workmen residents, who backed up the strikers in many a fierce struggle with the police and with the men were many women and still greater numbers of children. They stoned every car that passed over the tracks, hurled rocks and chunks of iron and vegetables of a various nature from the roofs of houses and from the windows; they barricaded the streets with pavement stones, tore up the street tracks, chopped the stone with wire and spikes and blockaded the thoroughfare.

They had many a hand to hand conflict with the 600 patrolmen that had been placed along the line. The injured the exact number can not be known. Several policemen were removed to hospitals with broken bones and torn scalps.

At least one sickler, or sympathizer, had his skull fractured and a boy and his skull fractured. Innumerable passengers on the cars received bad wounds and it was impossible for passengers on Second avenue to go much above the Fourteenth street.

It was the hope of the strikers to make a deep impression by their success in Second avenue, and so far as rioting was concerned, they and their sympathizers made it. On the other lines throughout New York the strike was not at any time prominent during the day. Wednesday night, however, the motormen on the Eighth avenue line to the number of 100 or more organized and declared a strike. They thereupon set about to persuade their fellow-workmen to leave their cars and with sufficient force to have caused running on only an hourly schedule before midnight. Thursday, they declare, Eighth avenue will also be tied up. The officials of the Sixth avenue line made the statement Wednesday night that cars on this avenue were moving about the same as ever.

An attempt was made at 1 o'clock Thursday morning to wreck a car on Park avenue near Sands street on its way to Manhattan. A cable similar to those used to stretch electric light and telephone wires was tied across the street from post to post a foot above the pavement. The car was coming at full speed and was a short distance from Sands street when it crashed into the cable.

The fender was bent under the car, throwing the front track off the rails, and the motorman, James Woodward, who says he is from Philadelphia, was thrown over the dashboard to the pavement and crashed about the shoulders and head.

There were no passengers in the car. Six policemen were aboard, but they escaped with a shaking up. The work is attributed to strikers.

MONOT KILL IN EREPTION.

ROSE, July 20.—There was an eruption of Mount Etna Wednesday morning. After loud subterranean noises the crater vomited forth dense columns of smoke which were followed by enormous masses of sand. A strong earthquake shock occurred here at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and was followed during the ensuing 15 minutes by a number of other severe shocks.

A Drop in the Price of Flour.

CHICAGO, July 20.—The price of flour dropped 2 cents a barrel Wednesday morning. The price to jobbers fell from $4.20 to $4.00, and according to the statements of dealers there is little likelihood of an upturn. The drop is said to be due to the steady decrease in the price of wheat.

The Handy Philosophical Prize.

DETROIT, Mich., July 20.—Mrs. John S. Newberry, of this city, has given to the University of Michigan a bequest of $2,500 to found the Handy philosophical prize, in honor of her father, Mr. J. P. Handy, of Cleveland.

RECOVERY DOUBTFUL.

A Six Foot Copperhead Snake Discovered in the Child's Bed—She Was Hit—Two Times.

GALLIPOLI, O., July 20.—Jacob Archer, living at Ashton, eight miles below here, was awakened Tuesday night by screams coming from the direction of a bed on the floor where his daughter was sleeping. He hastened to the child and in picking her up felt something hit his arm, and when Mrs. Archer arrived with the light he was horrified to find a huge six-foot copperhead snake lying in the bed. Upon examination the child was found to be bitten four times on the face and once on the arm. The recovery of the child is doubtful. The snake fought Mr. Archer, but was finally dispatched.
